OFFERS A ONCE IN A LIFETIME EXPERIENCE FOR A LUCKY FAN

GodTube, the world's largest Christian networking site has announced that they are joining the Winter Jam 2009 Tour as the exclusive online Christian social networking partner. Winter Jam is the largest annual tour in Christian Music History pulling in a record breaking number of 311,000 plus fans last year. This year, the numbers are sure to surpass that amount, as Winter Jam 2009 will be welcoming a star studded line up including artists such as TobyMac, Hawk Nelson, Brandon Heath, NewSong, Family Force 5, BarlowGirl, The Afters, Francesca Battistelli, PureNRG, and Stephanie Smith.

As a sponsor, Godtube has announced that will be hosting: The GodTube Jam Cam Contest- giving the chance for a lucky fan to personally introduce their favorite artist/band in front of the largest annual tour in Christian Music history – Winter Jam. The contest is easy and anyone can do it. All potential winners need to do is film their own unique and spectacular introduction for their favorite artists on the tour, upload it on their GodTube account and send it to www.godtube.com/winterjam. *(Please see below for more information). If your video is selected, not only will your video be seen by thousands of Christian Music fans, but you'll also win TWO PASSES to the Winter Jam Tour date of your choice with early admission so you can choose the best seats available.

Trey Bowles, the Vice President of Marketing for GodTube is thrilled to be a part of Winter Jam 2009 and to announce The GodTube Jam Cam Contest giveaway . “Having thousands of applicants come to Godtube.com to not only upload their videos, but to connect and share their faith and lives through videos, photos, blogs, prayers through a safe and family-friendly site is what our world needs at this time- hope and faith.”

GodTube “Jam Cam” Contest Guidelines

1. Create an account on GodTube.com: <http://www.godtube.com/signup.php>
2. Go to the godtube.com/winterjam to confirm which artists are performing at the tour date you're going to attend.
3. Record your video introduction. NOTE: all contest videos MUST have the following elements:
 - Identify yourself – say your name, youth group, or organization
 - Tell us where you're from – say the name of your city
 - Introduce your Winter Jam artist with passion and energy – remember your video is being played in front of literally thousands of screaming fans waiting for the artist you're introducing to come on stage. The last thing you should say in your video is the artist/band's name.
 - Make sure your video is shot properly – we need to be able to hear what you're saying and see what you're doing.
 - Keep your video to a MAXIMUM LENGTH of 20 seconds

4. Upload your video to your GodTube account. Make sure your video is uploaded no later than seven (7) days before the concert you want to attend.

5. After your video is approved, send the video link in a message to the GodTube Jam Cam page. You can do this by visiting: www.godtube.com/winterjam and clicking on the “Send a Message” button.

6. Check your account often! If your video is selected, we will message you the good news on your GodTube account.

There are 35 Winter Jam tour dates with five GodTube “Jam Cam artist introductions each night so there are a LOT of winners – multiple video entries are welcomed and encouraged to increase your chances of winning.
