Multi award-winning Christian music artist Michael W. Smith joins in special holiday season celebration for Shoes For Orphan Souls in Dallas, Texas

(DALLAS, Texas) – January 7, 2008 – During the 2008 holiday season, GodTube.com and Buckner International teamed up with Grammy Award-winning Christian singer-songwriter Michael W. Smith for a special service project and surprise performance at the home office of the orphan relief organization. Located at the Buckner Center for Humanitarian Aid in Dallas, Texas, Smith visited the Shoes for Orphan Souls warehouse and surprised volunteers with an unplugged performance. Smith played three songs, including hit song “Friends” and revealed a special piano piece he had recently written for his granddaughter.

GodTube recently announced the multi-faceted partnership to facilitate the expansion of Buckner International’s mission and outreach on a global scale. Shoes for Orphan Souls is just one of the many ministries and services of Buckner International, which provides new shoes and socks to orphans and at-risk children in the United States and throughout the world. “Shoes for Orphan Souls is an amazing ministry,” Smith said. “The kind of partnership Buckner and GodTube have established will help open doors for people to be the hands and feet of the Lord. And it’s always been my hope, dream and prayer that if the Church at large did what these guys are doing together, it would change the world.”
